

Danville Master Gardener Association
Christmas/Holiday Dinner and Graduate Recognition
December 4, 2023

The DMGA Christmas/Holiday Dinner and Graduate/Intern Recognition, was held on Monday, December 4, 2023, at West Main Baptist Church at 6:00 p.m. The dinner was well attended by members, interns and guests.

Billy Holley, President, and Corey Reidel, Extension Agent, recognized the 2023 Training Program graduates and presented certificates of completion to: Jennifer Pittman, Robin Loftis, and Rhonda Harris. Also completing the training was Mary Beth Holley, who could not attend.

Corey also presented Service Award certificates and pins for volunteer hours to Billy Holley, Jim Clark, Bonnie Hill, Randee Brown, and Sandy Pruitt. Gayle Thompson also earned a certificate.

Ann Sylves was the winner of the $25.00 cash prize for the handbook Coloring Contest, presented by Debra Bailey.

Ann led the group in a trivia game of True/False statements about Randee Brown (we were wrong on most of them!)

The Dinner was planned by Isla Wiles and Nancy Carpenter, with assistance from Sandy Pruitt, Brenda Rowland, and others. The caterer, Ruth Meadors, had prepared sausage and vegetable lasagna, which were served along with salads, bread and desserts provided by membership. All were delicious and the fellowship hall was beautifully decorated.

Billy led a round of applause for the Social Committee, the caterer, and all the members who contributed and attended.

Next DMGA Meeting:

Monday, January 8, at West Main Baptist Church
Business Meeting
Time: 7:00 p.m. with refreshments served at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Bonnie Hill, Secretary